DEATH ROLL OF SOLDIERS

NAMES OF THE MEN WHO HAVE DIED IN HONOLULU.

Causes of Death—Nearly Fifty Per Cent of the New Yorkers' Casualties Due to Typhoid Fever.

As there has been much controversy as to the number of soldiers that have died in Honolulu, The Star has obtained a complete list, which has been furnished through the medical authorities in charge of the hospital. The four first names are of those soldiers who were left here by the transports on the way to Manila, and were cases of typhoid contracted on board ship. The deaths of those belonging to the troops stationed here began August 28th, so that they extend over a period of just about two months and amount to 13 in all, of which 7 are from typhoid fever, or very nearly 50 per cent.

DEATH ROLL OF SOLDIERS.

- William Sullivan, typhoid fever, age 24, July 17.
- C. H. Watson, typhoid fever, age 34, July 20.
- Isaac Strickland, typhoid fever, age 25, July 27.
- William Patton, typhoid fever, age 22, August 4.
- Ormond Fletcher, heart disease, age 33, August 28.
- William Weuster, typhoid fever, age 24, September 2.
- Walter Johnson, typhoid fever, age 37, September 17.
- Clarence H. Porter, septic infection, age—, October 2.
- William Deffrain, malarial fever, age 18, October 8.
- Charles H. Thompson, consumption, age 22, October 15.
- Thomas Beaver, peritonitis, age 23, October 16.
- William T. Timberlake, typhoid fever, age 29, October 18.
- Julius N. Miller, acute mania, age 22, October 20.
- Thomas Hanna, electric wire accident, age 28, October 23.
- D. W. Dawson, typhoid fever, age 30, October 24.
- Webster McCarthy, typhoid fever, age 26, October 25.
- George W. Neiman, convulsions, age—, October 29.
- William Goodrich, typhoid fever, age 21, October 30.
- C. Carter, typhoid fever, age 21, October 30.

HONOLULU WILL GET IT.

Mr. Dillingham states that the applications through Colonel Soper from San Francisco for stock in the new Waialua plantation will be thrown out for reasons already stated. All the stock has been placed here and will be distributed just as fast as possible. Mr. Dillingham added that all local people would receive the full amount of stock applied for.

GENERAL KING.

General King's vaccinated arm is swelled to nearly twice its normal size. It is believed an improvement has set in this morning, however, as the inflammation is approaching a head at the vaccination wound. Major Morris vaccinated the general, and used one of the New Zealand tubes for the purpose.

TONIGHT'S CONCERT.

It will be a grand concert program at the Hawaiian hotel this evening. Mr. Ellis will repeat "Answer," by request, and will also sing "Love's Sorrow," a new selection. Rosa Berliner, the young Seattle minstrel, will sing "Mamie Reilly" and "My Honolulu Lady." Charles Kreuter will offer "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp" for a cornet solo.

MARRIED.

MYHRE - CANAVARRO.—In this city, October 31, 1898, by the Rev. T. D. Garvin, at the Christian church parsonage, George Christian Myhre and Marian Canavarro.

MESSANGER SERVICE.

Honolulu Messenger Service deliver messages and packages. Telephone, 378.

FRESH IMPORTS.

By the S. S. Australia, Camarinos received cherries, rhubarb, asparagus, celery, cauliflower, fresh salmon, crabs, flounders, oysters (in tin and shell), apples, grapes, figs, lemons, Burbank potatoes, pure olive oil, dried fruit, new crop of nuts, raisins, etc. California Fruit Market, King Street.

TYPEWRITERS!!

In no line of mechanics is excellence of construction of such vital importance as in Typewriters.

The PEERLESS is especially noted for its durability, simplicity and its speed.

Considering first cost only the PEERLESS is not one of the so-called "cheap machines," but looking at it from a business point of view, comparing quantity and quality of work, loss of time from breakdowns on steamer days, when the Typewriter is most needed, and cost of repairs, as well as the life of the Typewriter, the PEERLESS is without an equal and is the cheapest machine on the market.

WILLIS AND MACKINTOSH

RECTOR INVITES THE BISHOP TO DO HIS WORST.

Threatens to Air the Matter in the Civil Courts—Counter Charges are Submitted.

Rev. Alex. Mackintosh has politely but firmly invited Alfred, Bishop of Honolulu, to do his worst, and see how he will come out of it. This is a phase of the controversy started by the bishop a few weeks ago, at which time he accused Rev. A. Mackintosh of violations of certain church rules and finally threatened to dismiss him from the work.

The letter from Rev. A. Mackintosh was received by Bishop Willis this morning. It was written last evening. It is strong and pointed and will probably bring forth a reply.

In his letter Rev. A. Mackintosh denies charges preferred against him by the bishop. He goes further and warns the bishop to stop right where he is. If the bishop attempts to oust the preacher there will be at once a legal injunction and the whole matter will be aired in the civil courts.

It appears, if all the statements in the case are true, that the bishop's contention is without merit. The stand of the Rev. A. Mackintosh in the matter of the Chinaman married is backed up by the government official who issued the license. As for baptizing on other than holy days, attention is called to a certain transaction on May 18, 1896. In other words, on that day, which was not a holy day, no less a dignitary than the bishop himself baptized a person and duly recorded the same in the Diocesan Magazine following. Attention is drawn by Rev. A. Mackintosh to this occurrence.

It is said the bishop's charges are gradually simmering down to one of being discourteous to fellow workers. It may be added that the Second Congregation is considerably worked up over the controversy. Many of the substantial men in it only wish the charges had been against the parish, when they could have taken a hand.

FOR SMUGGLING CIGARS.

Ah Fook, Chinese cook of the transport Senator, pleaded guilty in the district court this morning to the charge of smuggling cigars, and was fined $50. He had a systematic way of bringing his cigars ashore, wrapped around his body, and selling them in the Chinese quarter.

POLICE COURT.

Chan On and Yong Tuck were fined $50 each by Judge Wilcox this morning for operating a chee fa bank. Ah Wun was fined $50 for having opium in his possession. Pa paid $15 for gambling. Sentence was suspended for six months in the case of J. L. Santon, assault and battery of L. F. Jesus.

MAJOR LAUKEA RETIRES.

Curtis P. Laukea retired from the land office and government employ last night, and is a private citizen today. He goes at once to Waialua, where he will superintend the arrangement of grounds, tree planting, etc., around the new Waialua hotel. His family will not move to Waialua until about February 1st.

E. S. Boyd has succeeded Major Laukea in the land office and Gus Rose has taken up a peg in the Interior office.

FUNERAL THIS MORNING.

Private Carter was an Athlete and Had Model Habits.

The funeral of Private Charles Carter, Company G, First New York, took place from St. Andrew's cathedral at 10 o'clock this morning. Chaplain Carl Swartz conducted the service. Company G was out in full, and the First New York band headed the procession. The remains were placed in a vault in Nuuanu cemetery and will probably be returned to New York.

Private Carter is the first loss of Company G since the war began, and was about the last man any of the boys thought would drop out. He was an athlete, and a man of model habits. At home he was a prominent and earnest church worker. His friends in the company and the regiment were of the truest kind.

L. L. La Pierre, C. H. Sawyer, A. M. Mellis and George Dall represented the local Old Fellows in the list of pall bearers at the funeral of the late Sergeant William Goodrich, held from St. Andrew's cathedral yesterday afternoon.

TOO MUCH COAL.

There are at present in Honolulu 20,000 tons of coal belonging to the United States government, with more to come. Chief Quartermaster Rubien in whose charge the coal of the government now comes said this morning that the war being over there would hardly be a necessity for having so much fuel here, and he would sell the bulk of it at reasonable figures.

CHANCE FOR SAVING.

We are reducing stock to make room for improvements. Prices lower than ever.

FAIRCHILD'S SHOES.

SHE WOULDN'T STAY AT HOME.

This is the remark a man was heard to make in regard to his wife, but how could he blame her when she could get such bargains at L. B. Kerr's store. See his "specials" for this week.

FILIPINOS AS THEY ARE

INSURGENTS WILL NOT GIVE ANY TROUBLE.

They Have No Fleet and No Army and Recognize That They Can Do Nothing Against America.

Henry W. Root, who was in Manila for over two months and took part in all the fighting there, does not share the opinion that seems to have gained currency, that the United States will have serious trouble with the Filipinos.

"Of course," he said, "my knowledge and observation is limited to Manila and the region around there. I don't know about the conditions in the other islands except what I have heard."

"But as far as Manila is concerned, near which Aguinaldo has his headquarters and where he was strongest the insurgents have all been disarmed. They recognized that the United States is a proposition it would be useless to struggle with, and that in fact they have no occasion to struggle with. They felt sore when they were not allowed to go into Manila to loot and pillage and cut throats, and were disarmed, but they did not get any notions that they could fight the United States from that fact."

"They expected to even up the score of two or three hundred years of oppression by a carnival of blood shedding. But when they found they were not to be permitted to do that they were surprised, but did not think of fighting the American soldiers."

"Their feelings toward the Spanish were frequently indicated, before the capture of the city, by the oft repeated expression 'Espanola!' accompanied by a graphic gesture of drawing a hand across their throats."

"The encounters between the insurgents and the American troops of which I have seen so much in the American papers since I have been here, are nothing more than police affairs. There have been several instances where roving bands of insurgents have held up commissary wagons and trains in outlying places, but they were nothing but what would occur anywhere where disorder had prevailed for two or three years, and they were quickly quelled. In other instances they were simply street brawls and as often as otherwise the soldiers were to blame."

"One night there was an alarm and a report that a general massacre was going on. The troops were called to arms and were under arms all night. The fact is that all the trouble there was grew out of the effort of a lot of drunken soldiers to clean out a saloon in Cavite."

The American troops in my judgment will have nothing to do there but police duty, and that is the general opinion that prevails among both officers and men.

"Aguinaldo is a pretty smart young man, and to use slang is 'onto his job.' He recognizes that he can be a pretty big man as long as he doesn't get into trouble with the United States. There are no well armed, well drilled insurgent troops. Their idea of fighting is to make a lot of noise. And the talk of Aguinaldo's fleet is the funniest of all. He has no fleet, nor any money to get one with, nor any money to buy arms. It is as much as he can do to scrape up enough money to keep up his show of being president of the Philippines."

"The situation at Manila makes it absolutely impossible that there will be any serious trouble with the insurgents."

TROUBLES GALORE.

Misfortune Follows Mr. Morse on His Tour of Hawaii.

Sidney H. Morse, the vocalist, is quite ill at Mrs. McConnell's, in Garden lane. He had measles in Hilo and pleurisy developed as an after effect. Dr. Cooper is attending the sick man.

A series of misfortunes attended the singer to the Island of Hawaii. At one of the entertainments Mr. Morse took sick, and a lady assisting in the program fainted. While on the way to the volcano the horse driven by Mr. Morse and Mr. Twining fell over an embankment. The musicians had to walk five miles to find help. Then Mr. Morse took measles and finally had pleurisy.

Before leaving Honolulu the two gentlemen will give another concert. As before, local talent will assist in the program.

VERY SPECIAL.

If you want to replenish your stock of towels, bedspreads and sheeting no better opportunity ever presented itself. Sachs Dry Goods Co. have thrown out for sale at very special prices their entire stock. Just look it over.

DELICIOUS ICE CREAM.

There is ice cream, but the ice cream served at the New England Bakery is the most delicious in town.

WHY NOT BUY A SINGER?

You want a sewing machine? Then why not buy a Singer; there has been more of them sold than any other make. They wear longer, run lighter and do better work than any other make. They have never been a cut price machine, the workmanship on the Singer will not admit of cut prices. A few dollars in the original cost between a good machine and a poor one counts for nothing. B. Bergerson, agent, Bethel Street.

DWIGHT BUILDS THE ROAD

AWARDED CONTRACT FOR DRIVE TO THE PALL.

Begins Important Work at Once and Hopes to Have It Finished Early Next Year.

The contract for building the proposed new road from town to the Pall will be let this afternoon or tomorrow to C. B. Dwight. Mr. Rowell is figuring this afternoon on the details of the contract.

Mr. Dwight's bid was $29,975 for the whole block of 25,300 feet, or about five miles straightaway. All the other bids ran from $10,000 to $18,000 higher.

Dwight's bid is above the money on hand, and some paring off will be resorted to. The appropriation was $30,000, but some of it was expended in making a new survey of the route. The contractor hopes to finish the road during the first half of the coming year.

The new road to the Pall is one that has been figured on for years, but was over-topped by the importance of the mountain part of it. This having been completed attention will be devoted to the town end of the line, which is in sad need of great improvement.

SURGICAL OPERATION.

Tom Quinn, a brother of Jim Quinn, underwent a serious surgical operation at the Queen's Hospital last night. His condition is considered serious, but the strong belief is entertained that he will recover.

STEAM LAUNDRY OPENING.

A big tank for hot water, brought by the Australia, for the steam laundry at Iwilei, will be delivered tomorrow and set up at once. As soon as it is in place the fires will be started and newspaper men of the city given a chance to see the machinery in operation. Soon after there will be a public reception at the laundry. It is expected that business will begin next Monday morning.

STOCK EXCHANGE.

The sales on the board this morning were $2,000 of Hawaiian government bonds at par, and 10 shares of Oahu at 155.

Asking prices were: American Sugar 107½, Ewa 240, Hawaiian Agricultural 400, Hawaiian Sugar 162½, Honolulu 310, Honokaa 170, Kahuku 130, Kipahulu 110, Oahu 156, Oolaka 91, Olowalu 120, Pacific Sugar 240, Pepee-keo 200, Pioneer 385, Wailuku 285, Waimanalo 190, Waimea 125, Oahu railroad stocks 80.

IN PARIS.

Father Mathias of the Catholic Mission, who has just returned from attending the quinquennial session of the Chapter General of the Order of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, in Paris, says that as important as the Dreyfus agitation has been, Paris is such a big city that it was scarcely felt there. Even the massing of the troops in the city was a mere incident that few would notice unless their attention was called to it or they were particularly interested in the matter. Even big things are lost in a big city.

WILL NOT RESIGN.

Sheriff Andrews writes to Marshal Brown that he will not resign the office of chief bailiff of Hawaii. He is satisfied and hopes the department is. The sheriff says the report that he would retire originated from the fact that he has stock in the Volcano Stables Company, and Manager Forrest has resigned. People jumped at the conclusion that he was to be the successor, and the Hilo Tribune of last Saturday announced such as a fact.

KILOHANA ART LEAGUE.

The opening of the fall exhibition of the Kilohana Art League has been postponed until the week before Thanksgiving.

D. Howard Hitchcock, the Hawaiian artist, will remain two months in Honolulu, and will then return to the Island of Hawaii for a long stay.

KAUAI PARTITION CASE.

The supreme yesterday decided the case of E. J. Morgan vs. Wahine Kalu, partition, in favor of plaintiff. This matter is from Kauai and is a land controversy.

SOLDIERS PAID OFF.

The men on the transport Valencia received their pay today, and are correspondingly happy, although they will have little chance to spend it before leaving for Manila. Several hundred of them were ashore last night, but were largely without funds. The through men have all been well behaved and leave behind the best of impressions. Many of the number have made personal friendships here.

Camps Otis and McKinley will receive a month's pay this week, perhaps tomorrow.

FOR MEN ONLY.

Women are requested not to read the following. If a man wants to be well dressed he should look at those new suitings at L. B. Kerr's before buying.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF HONOLULU.

Cyril O. Smith's new Honolulu photographs may now be obtained at the Woman's Exchange.

TO GO VIA THE LADRONES

THE COURSE OF THE DEPARTING TRANSPORTS.

Lively Scenes at the Wharf, Recalling Those of Four Months Ago—Valencia and Senator Leave.

The troops on the Valencia and Senator will go in sight of the Ladrones, the scene of the most burlesque incident of the war, the capture of Guam. The course to be taken by the two steamships was decided on this morning. The Valencia is to lead and the Senator is to keep within one mile, except in thick weather, when circumstances will govern.

The course which will be taken is almost due west to the Ladrones Islands, passing in sight of them, but not stopping. From thence the course will be to the northern point of Luzon Island and then south down the coast to Manila.

The water front scenes of four months ago when expeditions to Manila were following each other thick and fast, were re-enacted this morning at the Irmgard wharf, while preparations for the departure of the two transports were going on. The men on the Valencia were paid off, and then individuals were allowed ashore on passes to make purchases for themselves and their comrades. The men on the Senator having been paid in San Francisco had no funds coming to them, and they were kept on board, not even being allowed to go on the wharf. Several for violating this order were put in the guard house.

Vendors of fruit, delicacies and of drinks were on the wharf in numbers and did a lively business. In dealing with the troops on the Senator the commodities purchased had to be thrown up to them as they crowded at the rail. Good nature prevailed. The troops on both vessels have conducted themselves admirably since they have been here.

Not a man on the Valencia has been absent or late at roll call without permission, a record it is said that is unequalled.

Two o'clock was the hour set for sailing, but it was a little later than that when they pulled out from the wharf and started on their long journey.

TROUBLE AT HOME.

A regular of the Eighteenth has been discharged here and will leave for his home in Oklahoma by the Australia tomorrow. Soon after he enlisted for the war two Indians entered his house at Guthrie and brutally murdered his sister, a young lady at the top of her teens. The town turned out, and a brother of the soldier set fire to the faggots that burned the Indians. The brother will have to defend himself before a jury in December. An appeal from the mother to Washington secured the release of the soldier here. "He is required at home to look after two ranches owned by the unhappy family."

WATER TANK BURST.

To add to the troubles of the Arizona the water tank burst yesterday and will have to be repaired before the vessel can go to sea. It will take about four days to put it in good order again. Present indications are that the transport will sail next Sunday for Manila.

RENTON ROBBED.

George Renton of Hawaii was robbed of $35 last night at the Queen hotel. It was taken from the room of a friend, where he had left it. He notified the police this morning, but so far no clue to the perpetrator has been found.

KINAU AND MAUNA LOA.

The Kinau and the Mauna Loa were five and three-quarters minutes apart in passing the spar buoy going out this morning. The Mauna Loa started first. There was considerable interest and speculation as to which would reach Lahaina first. There were few bets made, however.

CARNIVAL VIEWS.

One window of the Pacific Hardware Company is filled with pictures of the recent Knights Carnival in Topeka, in which Miss Anna Rose appeared as queen. There are in the lot two large views of Miss Rose in her regal costume and a third in evening dress. Other views are of floats in the procession, the place at which Miss Rose stopped and of sections of the grand parade.

EJECTMENT SUIT.

Kalau has begun proceedings against Mrs. Kamakaku Nani and Chin Lum for the recovery of a valuable lot at Kapukolo, which she claims the defendants have seized and hold contrary to his rights.
